ELECTRONIC I-94

The U.S. Government is in the process of eliminating the paper I-94 card (a small white card received upon admission to the U.S. and surrendered upon departure)

As of May 21, 2013, all airports and seaports will ONLY issue electronic I-94s.

Paper I-94

Custom and Border Patrol (CBP) will only issue paper I-94s to those entering at land borders (i.e. Canada, Mexico).

New Electronic I-94

Now, when you enter the United States, you will ONLY get an entry stamp in your passport. Your I-94 information will be recorded electronically.

Carrying Proof of Alien Registration  Important

By law, you are required to carry proof of your Alien Registration at all times.

Previously this meant your paper I-94 card.

Now you must carry either:

1) Your passport with the entry stamp OR
2) The printout of your I-94 Number (see reverse side)
