Come and Join Us!

Learn or Improve English Skills

Meet and socialize with International and American women and their children

Fall Enrollment Begins
Tuesday, September 3, 2013

Spring Enrollment Begins
Tuesday, January 21, 2014

“Our mission is to help international women adjust to living in Lawrence, Kansas.”

Small World is a non-profit program that is operated entirely by volunteers.

Small World provides a fun, comfortable environment in which International women and their children can:

- Improve English skills
- Adjust to the Lawrence community
- Learn about American culture and customs
- Socialize with other women from diverse backgrounds
- Form lasting friendships

English Classes

Women may enroll at anytime during the semester. Classes are taught at five different levels by experienced, English-speaking teachers. All classes are taught by women. Students advance at their own pace. Classes are held on Tuesday and Thursdays from 9:00 -11:00 a.m. and coincide with the KU academic calendar. There are no classes during the summer.

KU students are not eligible to attend our English classes but are welcome to join Small World as volunteers.

Special Activities

- Evening Socials: Occasional gatherings to share a relaxing evening of conversation and refreshments in a private home. The socials are for women only, men and children may not attend.
- Assemblies: Special Events and gatherings to celebrate and demonstrate American customs and holidays and to share traditions from other cultures
- Potlucks: An opportunity to share and taste ethnic food from around the world

Tuition

Adult.....$15 per semester, $25 per year
Child .....$5 per semester
maximum of $10 per semester for two or more children

Children’s Program

Children, 3 months to 6 years, will make friends, gain confidence and learn language skills in a relaxed preschool setting. The children’s program meets at the same time as the adult English classes. The Children’s Program is only for currently enrolled Small World students and staff members.

Women who would like an opportunity to make new friends and meet women from other countries and cultures are invited to join us. Their young children are also welcome.
